Remember: Your responsibility, by God's enabling, is to consistently apply the Divine principles and truths you have heard (Philippians 2:1-13; 1 Timothy 4:7-9; James 1:22-27).

As you meditate on this message, ask yourself these questions:

- How does God want my beliefs/actions to change?
- How can I accomplish this change?
- What is the first step toward bringing about this change?

Don't forget to grab a church business card and invite your friends and neighbors to join us . We also have Sermonaudio cards that will direct you to our online sermons.

If you'd like to subscribe to our podcast, a button has been added on the sermon page of our website.

- * Feel free to email me with any questions you may have. parkerreardon@gmail.com
- * We've previously mentioned the desire to come alongside God's people here at ACC to maximize the preaching/teaching time. Your pastor is all-to-well acquainted with his infirmities as a preacher:) I believe communication was drastically affected by the Fall. Every week that we gather together there are invariably misconnects and questions remaining from our study of God's Word. After all, our finite minds are seeking to understand the infinite mind of Christ. Even though God's Word is clear, His servants struggle to be clear. Let's plan on making available a 'Sermon Debrief' time for anyone who is interested. I'll sit at a table during Meet & Greet (barring counseling or other immediate needs) so we can engage in discussion, further clarifying any questions, possible applications, or even a wrong cross-reference which I've been known to give."
